

Psychology

TEACHING FELLOWS

HWS Center for Teaching & Learning

What is a Teaching Fellow (TF)?

TFs facilitate your learning of course concepts and understanding of assignments. TFs are nominated by department faculty and selected jointly by the CTL and the department. They use a collaborative approach to teaching and learning.

What do TFs do?

- Discuss course concepts and ideas in a collaborative study space
- Assist with homework assignments, problem-solving skills, and study strategies
- Help students develop questions to ask during class or faculty office hours

➤ What Psychology courses do the TFs serve?

- PSY 100 (Introduction to Psychology)
  - PSY 210 (Statistics & Design)
- PSY 221 (Introduction to Psychopathology)
- PSY 321 (Research in Developmental)

Who are the PSYCHOLOGY Teaching Fellows?

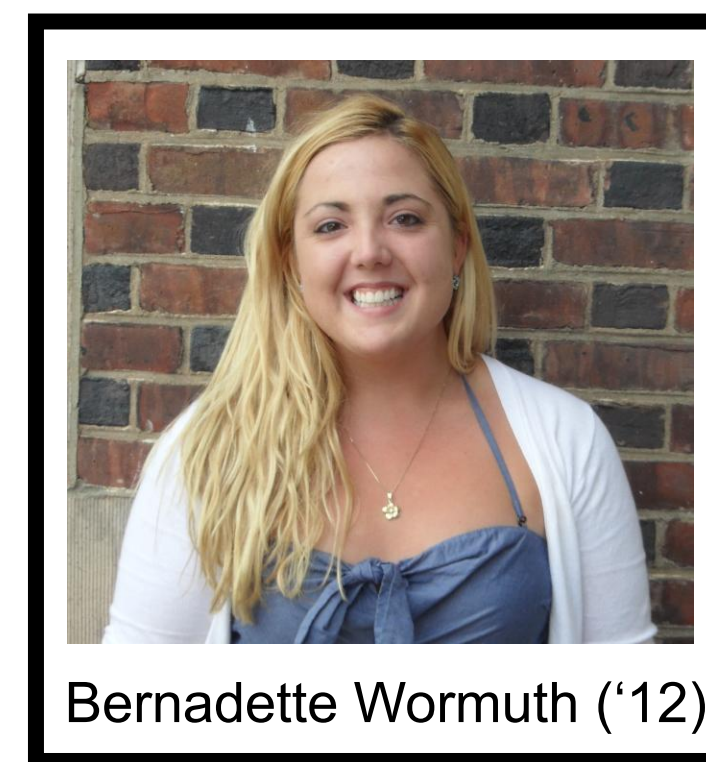

Jon Bruno ('12)

Patrick Dillingham ('12)

Walter Green ('12)

Bernadette Wormuth ('12)

Fall 2011 Weekly Schedule (Gulick 223)

	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
2-4 pm	Jon & Patrick	Jon & Patrick	Walter & Patrick	Jon & Bernadette	Walter & Bernadette
7-10 pm		Jon & Patrick	Walter & Patrick	Jon & Bernadette	Walter & Bernadette