Co-Producing Justice and Cultivating Community: Time Banking and System Change
Tuesday, March 27, 2012
7 p.m., Geneva Room

Dr. Edgar S. Cahn
Creator of Time Dollars and co-founder of the National Legal Services Program

Regarded as the father of poverty law, Cahn is the creator of Time Dollars, the world’s only tax-exempt currency, in which community members “bank” the time they have committed to helping others in exchange for the services they need (such as home repair, child care, tutoring, etc.). Cahn created Time Dollars to provide a solution to massive cuts in government spending on social welfare. Now there are TimeBanks in 40 states and 32 nations.

Cahn started his career in government as special counsel and speechwriter for Attorney General Robert Kennedy under President John F. Kennedy. Currently, Cahn is a Distinguished Emeritus Professor of Law at University of the District of Columbia.

Schuler Scholar Program
AmeriCorps Scholar Coach
2012-2013 School Year

The Schuler Scholar Program (SSP), a non-profit private foundation based in the northern suburbs of Illinois, is offering AmeriCorps positions. This program prepares under-resourced, high potential students to succeed at the most competitive private colleges and universities.

Position Description:

Coaches work with Scholars in one-on-one and group settings to provide subject specific tutoring and homework help, after school programs, and chaperoning cultural outings. They will also partake in Program Coordinator positions in which coaches can pursue their outside work associated with their passions.

This is a full year opportunity in which students will receive a living stipend, phone and transportation, paid health insurance and training.

Application deadline is June 1st, 2012

Interested candidates should forward a resume to amanda@scherlerprogram.org. For more information on the Foundation go to www.scherlerprogram.org. For more information on the AmeriCorps program go to www.americorps.gov.

Interested in service and looking for a summer job or a job after graduation?

LOOK NO FURTHER....

AmeriCorps positions are available at the Rural Health Service Corps in Whitney, New York!

There are about 10 positions available for people who are interested in service. Some are summer-type opportunities; others would be good for graduating seniors who can serve through December (30-40 hours per week, depending on start time). While people with any degree/background are welcome to apply, some areas of study may be more interested than others. They are looking for people with good communication skills, autonomous workers, civic minded individuals, and people who want to make a difference. All positions include a living allowance stipend and an Education Award.

Take a look at the website for more information!
