

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Each first-year class at Hobart and William Smith Colleges is composed of highly motivated students from a wide range of academic, cultural, financial, geographic, racial and ethnic backgrounds.

Admission to the Colleges is highly selective. Successful applicants demonstrate strong academic achievement during secondary school, special talents and skills, and commitments and involvement outside the academic curriculum. While not a requirement for admission, we strongly urge prospective students to visit our campus, take a student-guided tour and have an interview. Arrangements for interviews can be made through the Office of Admissions.

Candidates must offer a strong and well-balanced secondary school record. In addition to involvement in community and school activities, special talents are also considered.

Candidates for admission are expected to complete a secondary school program with a minimum of four academic subjects each year. At a minimum that program should include four years of English, three or more years of mathematics, three or more years of social science, three or more years of science, and two or more years of a foreign language.

We recognize that school curricula vary, and therefore are willing to consider applications from students whose preparation for college differs from the suggested plan of study where there is clear evidence of continuity in the study of fundamental subjects and readiness for college.

STANDARDIZED TESTING REQUIREMENTS FOR FIRST-YEAR APPLICANTS

At Hobart and William Smith we've decided to become a testing optional school. Our President, Provost, and Dean of Admissions all agree this is the right decision for us, and we hope it gives you at least some feeling of control in this pressure-filled process.

What does that mean for our prospective students?

It means that you'll have the choice to submit your SAT scores, ACT scores, or no standardized test scores at all* when you apply to HWS. Over time, we've found that standardized tests do not play a big role in the way we select our students, so we've decided to let you choose whether or not we see them.

We value many qualities in our students that are better measured by other elements of the application. We look for curiosity, conscientiousness, a strong work ethic, and a willingness to go beyond what is required. All of these things are seen in the high school transcript, recommendations, and the choices students have made about how they spend their time.

How do you decide if you should submit your scores to us?

Even though many students may struggle with this decision, we hope the answer is simple. Ask yourself this question, "Do you think your scores are a good representation of your skills and abilities?" If the answer is yes, send them in.

In order for your standardized test scores to be used in the assessment of your application for admission, your scores must be sent directly from the testing center or must appear on your official high school transcript and must arrive by the appropriate deadline. Self-reported test scores will not be considered. If you choose for us to use your standardized test scores, we will use the highest combined total of the individual components of the SAT scores. We will use the highest ACT Composite score if you submit ACT scores. If you submit both SAT and ACT scores, we will consider whichever scores are the highest based on a standard conversion chart comparing SAT and ACT scores.

Please note: If you indicate you would like your test scores used, it is your responsibility to ensure that we receive them by the appropriate deadline. If we do not have your scores on file at the time of evaluation, we will review and make a decision on your application without them. If you do not inform us of your choice on test score usage, we will review your application considering whatever official test score information we have, or don't have, at the time of evaluation.

 For those applying for the Blackwell and Trustee Scholarships, standardized test scores are required. Also, for those who attend a school (or are home schooled) that does not provide a traditional transcript, standardized test scores are required.*
