What is it?
Designed for student leaders from all levels of experience, the Leadership Institute (LI) brings participants together for a two-and-a-half day professional conference. LI looks to develop young leaders who are globally aware, community centric and capable of leadership with significant implications.

What to expect:

Choice
You choose which sessions to attend. With dozens to choose from, your experience will truly be your own.

Collaboration
You will have numerous opportunities to learn from and work with your peers, in large groups and small Home Groups.

Action
You will design an Action Plan based on your passions and goals, and we will support you in the process.

Leadership
You will attend workshops led by faculty, staff, students, alums, and community members, as well as learn from the very best keynote presenters.

The Details
