A Conversation
Dr. Chris Howard

Come meet Dr. Chris Howard; learn about his leadership, his building steps to success, and take advantage of networking possibilities. Dr. Howard will be giving the President’s Forum lecture later that evening—this conversation at Intercultural Affairs will give you the chance to engage in a more comfortable and informal setting. Refreshments will be provided.

Tuesday, October 30, 2012
at 4:30pm
Intercultural Affairs Center
288 Pulteney Street

Dr. Chris Howard is the President of Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia. He is the first African American president in this all white male institution. He was the president of his class at the Air Force Academy, a Rhodes Scholar, got a PhD from Oxford, an MBA from Harvard, was the vice president at GE and the head of the honors college at the University of Oklahoma.