A FIRESIDE CHAT with
PROFESSOR CATHERINE GALLOUET,
FRENCH AND FRANCOPHONE STUDIES,
AND HWS STUDENTS

Thursday, March 5 - 5pm
At the Intercultural Affair Center

Screening of Professor Gallouet’s documentary “Memories of Indochine” and a conversation on present-day Vietnam.

“Through boxes of documents, photos, letters and journals, this film weaves together the story of my first two years, and my parent’s involvement in the French Vietnam conflict that ended in 1954. Told from my mother’s journal and my father’s photos, the film provides a personal and historical account of the French Indochina War.”
