Poetry Workshop

with

Carlos Villacorta

HWS Assistant Professor of Spanish and Hispanic Studies

Wednesday, Feb. 27, 5 p.m.
Second Floor, Intercultural Affairs Center

Villacorta is the author of Spanish poetry book "el grito," and has edited and written a number of Spanish language poetry books that have been published in the U.S. and Perú. A member of the HWS faculty since 2010, Villacorta's expertise is in contemporary poetry, contemporary Latin American literature and Peruvian literature, Latin American politics, and film and urban studies.

He earned his B. A. in Hispanic Literature, Pontificia Universidad Catolica del Peru and his Ph.D. from Boston University.