

Community Engaged Scholarship Forum

Tuesday, May 7, 2013
4:30 – 5:30 p.m.
Vandervort Room

We welcome Timothy K. Eatman

co-director of Imagining America who will share remarks on the mutually beneficial impact of community engaged research and learning.

At the conclusion of the program, Eatman will join those interested in learning more about community engaged scholarship for dinner.

RSVP to kflowers@hws.edu by April 26.

<http://www.timothykeatman.com/>

Please join us at this interactive and informal poster session. This is a celebration of community collaboration and engaged learning.

Light refreshments will be served.

The Center for Community Engagement and Service-Learning
presents the Student research will be shared via posters, video and demonstrations.

Nominations sought to recognize exceptional community engaged student scholars, civically engaged faculty members, and supportive community members.

Nomination forms are available on CCESL's website and are due on 4/19.

To learn more about future opportunities related to Community-Based Research as well as service learning, please e-mail kflowers@hws.edu