30	FSCT- 201-01	Topic: Trans Genealogy	1	TuTh	11:50 AM - 01:20 PM	Demare	212	Staff

At the root of transphobic legislators; attempts to undermine transgender rights is a core idea: that ;transgender; is a new invention invading American life, antithetical to traditional values of the family, religion, and patriotism. However, as countless queer and trans scholars have shown, queerness and transness have long histories in the US and around the world that show that queer and trans practices, if not the identities themselves, are nothing new. Students take on the role of trans historians in this course, asking: how should we narrate these stories? This course will explore the many ways that trans studies scholars are grappling with questions of

Multi-Designated Courses
There are limited number of instances in the Schedule of Courses in which classes fall into two unique categories: (1) Within Subject -- classes with multi-level course designations (eg. ANTH 323/423) and (2) Cross Subject - classes which have multiple designations but the same course content (eg. ARCH 351/ENV 351). These classes are viewed by the Colleges as "class equivalents" and students are only permitted to take one of the equivalents for credit toward their degree. Students should also be aware that for the within subject classes in category (1) there will be students that are taking the course at different levels and this will include differences in assignments, etc.
