Change of Advisor Form

This form should be used to declare a new academic advisor for either a declared major or an undecided student. If you are about to declare a major, your advisor will be changed with the declaration; this form is not required. This form is not intended to declare or change an academic major.

__________________________________________________________________________

Student Name: Last, First

__________________________________________________________________________

Student ID Number

__________________________________________________________________________

Print Previous Advisor’s Name

__________________________________________________________________________

Declared Major or Undecided Status

__________________________________________________________________________

New Advisor Approval

__________________________________________________________________________

Date New Advisor Signature

__________________________________________________________________________

Print New Advisor’s Name

Return this form to the Office of the Registrar, Demarest Hall.