

Sex/Body/Self

A PERFORMANCE AND TALK WITH

TIM MILLER

Internationally recognized performance artist

Tim Miller will join the HWS community for a weeklong residency that explores issues of identity, body and society through theatre. In “Sex/Body/Self,” Miller will perform fierce and funny excerpts from his work as well as lead a discussion on how theatre can be used to embolden communities and connect people with one another.

All performances are FREE and Open to the Public.

THURSDAY, NOV. 5, 2015

8 P.M. • BARTLETT THEATRE

BODY MAPS

Saturday, Nov. 7

8 p.m. in Bartlett Theatre

Original performance piece about identity created by HWS students in collaboration with Tim Miller.

HOBART AND WILLIAM SMITH
COLLEGES

Miller's residency is co-sponsored by the Theatre and LGBT Studies departments, the Young Memorial Fund, and Student Affairs.