

LGBTQ EXPERIENCES AND ACTIVISM IN ISRAEL

BAGEL BRUNCH AND DISCUSSION WITH ETAI PINKAS

Named one of the “100 most influential people in Israel,” Etai has been a leader in the LGBTQ community in Israel for more than 15 years. He served as the leader of the national LGBT association and currently advises the mayor of Tel Aviv on LGBT issues. He and his partner have challenged the legal system in Israel to recognize same sex marriages and to provide same sex couples with equal access to the surrogacy process. Both of these issues have reached the Israeli Supreme Court because of Etai’s advocacy.
