Julianna Gray, Violin

Autumn (from Four Seasons) — Antonio Vivaldi (1678-1741)

I Allegro—The peasants dance and sing, hailing the fruits of the harvest — The drunkard drinks deeply from the cup of Bacchus, The drunkards fall into a deep slumber

II Adagio molto—The drunkards sleep soundly, the season is mild; peace and rest overtake all the joyous peasants

III The Hunt—As dawn breaks the hunter appears with his horn, hound and gun. The prey appears, the chase is on. The prey is bewildered by the clamorous dogs and the noise of the guns. Fatigued and wounded, the prey falls and dies.

D Minor Partita — Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Allemande and Courante

Meditation by

The Rev. Lesley Adams—Former HWS Chaplain

Meditation (from Thaïs) — Jules Massenet (1842-1912)

Please join us on Wednesday, October 7, 2020 with Glenna Curren, Cello playing music by Fauré, Rachmaninoff and Bruch